Dicker Data is pleased to announce the extension of our existing distribution agreement with Lenovo Australia to now include the full range of System x tower servers, 1U and 2U servers, v3700 storage products and Lenovo networking.

With the integration of IBM's server business into the Lenovo brand now complete Dicker Data has been appointed as a distributor in Australia to focus on the SMB market and grow their presence in the tier two space.

David Dicker, Chairman & CEO, Dicker Data Limited, said "Our strength in the SMB market segment means we're in the perfect position to grow Lenovo's enterprise business. Our partnership with Lenovo has gone from strength to strength over the years and I am confident we can get a mutually beneficial result from the extension of our arrangement."

Fred Viet, Channel Sales Manager ANZ, Lenovo said "We are pleased to be expanding our relationship with Dicker Data. Since 2012, the distributor has been supporting Lenovo ANZ and has grown to be one of our largest partners. With Dicker Data now on-board to distribute our high volume server and storage offerings in Australia, we have strengthened our already robust distribution network and can now deliver greater reach to service our reseller community. Dicker Data perfectly complements our SMB strategy and will aid us in growing our channel base and bolster Lenovo's SMB business."

Dicker Data has stock on hand available now for resellers to purchase for immediate delivery.
